MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

FROM : [REDACTED]
National Intelligence Officer for General Purpose Forces

SUBJECT: Alleg Senior Seminar on National Security Matters

1. On Monday, 14 January, Brigadier General Douglas Kinnard, US Army (Retired) called from the University of Vermont to ask whether it would be possible for someone from here to address his Senior Seminar on National Security Affairs on the subject of "The Intelligence Community," and to take part in a discussion afterwards. The meeting is to take place on 20 March, in the late afternoon, and will last approximately two and a half hours. Perhaps half of the period should be devoted to presentation, half to questions and discussion. Dr. Kinnard can be reached at (802) 656-3050 (O); (802) 863-3903 (H). He asked, if it were possible, to deal with the presenter directly.

2. As background, Dr. [REDACTED], DIA, has been participating in these events in the past, and referred Dr. Kinnard to me.

3. I recommend that a young, knowledgeable, and articulate representative, preferably from OSR, be selected.

Re the attached. The "senior" in [ ]'s "Senior Seminar on National Security Matters" refers to college seniors -- 3.5 average and above. I talked to General Kinnard who said there were 18 students in the seminar. They meet once a week for a 150-minute period during the spring.

The CIA rep would be the first one on Thursday, 20 March, 1510-1740. The next week's speaker is Dr. Henry S. Gaffney from ISA (GS-18). Following these two there are a team of five Army War College officers, two officers from the Social Science faculty at West Point to discuss the all-volunteer army and an officer from the History department at West Point.

He would like the CIA speaker to address the Intelligence Community for the first 50-minute period, then a give-and-take for the next 50-minute period, then a discussion of a new look at the Soviet threat -- Kinnard expects most of the questions will come out of this last discussion.

They are willing to put the speaker up at their Living and Learning Center -- when Westmoreland visited they didn't put him there but when Bill Bundy visited they did.

STATINTL

I recommend we pass this on to [ ] for a substantive speaker from OSR ([ ]'s suggestion -- young and relatable to the students) or OPA/USSR -- [ ], perhaps -- This is strictly academic engagement as far as I can see.
